The Michigan Office of Financial and Insurance Services is now requiring electronic reporting of course schedules. Enclosed are the procedures to report under this method. Please begin using immediately. Also, this course approval will expire two years from the date it was approved. Regardless of the delivery method of a self-study course, which includes on-line/Internet, textbook, CD-rom or any other form other than classroom attendance, the disinterested third party affidavit must be received by the provider at the time of grading the exam for credit to be granted. For self-study courses, the Disinterested Third Party affidavit must accompany the exam, i.e., received with the exam, in order to grant credit for insurance CE. Receiving affidavits days after the exam is unacceptable.
